

News from SALEM COUNTY

Office of Public Information

Mr. Robin B. Weinstein, Public Information Officer Office Phone: (856) 935-7510 ext. 8202

After Hours: (856) 297-5433

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: September 25, 2009

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR COMMUNITY PRIDE DAY

Clean Up of Fenwick Grove Park

(SALEM, NJ)— Freeholder Deputy Director Beth Timberman, Liaison to the Tourism Advisory Council, is reminding everyone that volunteers are needed on Community Pride Day, October 3, 2009, 8:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. at Fenwick Grove Park at 51 Cheney Road in Mannington Township.

"Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts or any groups interested in cleaning up our park are invited to join us for the kick-off of our Community Pride Program," said Deputy Director Beth Timberman. "Our goal is that when visitors stop at Fenwick Grove Park, it will be an enjoyable park experience."

Community Pride Day is being presented by the Tourism Advisory Council as part of the efforts to promote tourism in Salem County. The Council's Community Pride Coordinator is Joseph Hiles. The Council members are: Rebecca Gower Call, Chairperson, Maggie Vaughn, Vice Chairperson, Ed Masker, Scott Donnini, Alice Percheski, Jennifer Jones, Brian Duffy, and Mike Foglietta,

"To register for Community Pride Day call Irene Wanner at 856-935-7510 extension 8532 or e-mail her at Irene.wanner@salemcountynj.gov," said Deputy Director Beth Timberman. "Remember to wear long pants and long sleeved shirts along with toe covered shoes. Raking leaves and brush, picking up old pieces of trees and trash will be the tasks of the day. The Tourism Advisory Council and our clean-up sponsors will provide safety vest, gloves, rakes, and trash bags. Our food sponsors will provide beverages, donuts, and pizza."

The Tourism Advisory Council is proud to announce that the Salem County Improvement Authority/Solid Waste Division and the Salem County Clean Communities Grant will provide the volunteers with the clean-up tools. Mama Mia's Pizza & Restaurant will provide pizza and Wal*Mart will help by supply beverages.

For more information about Community Pride Day call Irene Wanner, Salem County Public Information Assistant at 856-935-7510 extension 8532 or e-mail at Irene.wanner@salemcountynj.gov or visit our web sites www.salemcountynj.gov and/or www.visitSalemCountyNJ.com.